Dear Sirs:

The Family of Baron George von Trapp, their spiritual leader and conductor, the Reverend Franz Wasner and their secretary, Miss Martha P. Zoechbauer are known to me for many years for their deep dislike of all forms of totalitarianisms. My recent staying with the family for several months confirmed my conviction. They believe in freedom of worship, freedom of speech and of education and left Austria after the Anschluss to preserve their liberty. Their hopes and feelings are with Great-Britain and they may be regarded friendly aliens of Canada.

Sincerely yours,

Archduchess Adelheid of Austria.
